

I Belong To You

Jump5

Maybe the time has come for me to believe
The safest place for me to be is in Your arms
When I draw near to You
You meet me where I am
You are my all and I realize...

I am in love
I belong to you
For you have chosen me
I give my heart
I give everything
I belong to you
Because I believe
I have been set free so naturally
And I belong to You

Now I can feel you here with me, I believe
Who else could change my heart
My life belongs to You
I stand before You now
I surrender everything
You are my all and I realize...

What is patient?
What is kind?
What is willing to forgive and leave behind
You are my all and I realize
You are my all and I realize
