

Put Me In The Picture

Jump5

You know that I, I'm the last thing you expected
You've seen my smile, took my heart by surprise
It's like magic, suddenly your mind is photographic
You can see me right by your side

Right out of nowhere you put me in the picture
It's looking like we could belong this way
Right from the moment you put me in the picture
Everyday has been a, a blue sky kind of beautiful day

You've got me, yeah, I'm right there in your pocket
And I need you close to my heart
Yeah, I admit there's been a little shift in the way I view things
Now I see what your true colors really are

The flash of inspiration
Everything has changed inside my world
As I always pictured it could be
Taking my sweet time
Keeping my heart mine
Then you walked away
And I heard you say
Smile fot the camera
