

A Taste

June

Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it

I can see a change
Just assume I'll go away
Where was your purity?
How about your honesty?

Turns out that I told you that you got it right
Full of pride but you're bothering, turn out the light
It's what you planned on
Got it (you got it) you got it

Just a taste, just a taste on the tip of your tongue
Make sure to tell all your friends

I'm not giving into this
I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
You're such a shameless accident
No, I will not give into this
I'm not giving into this
I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
You're such a shameless accident
No, I will not give into this

Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it
Can't forget about it

Welcome the scenery
The place you're meant to be
Consider I tried to adjust
It was just that it must be my luck

I wish you'd see me now
Don't you ever assume that I will turn back
I will never turn back

Just a taste, just a taste on the tip of your tongue
Make sure to tell all your friends

I'm not giving into this
I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
No, I will not give into this

I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
No, I will not give into this

I'm not giving into this
Cause I've tried and I've tried
No more reason to persist

It's just a shameless mistake
So tell me your story's straight
It's not a shameless mistake

I'm not giving into this
I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
No, I will not give into this
I'm not giving into this
I've tried and tried and tried to block the thought
No, I will not give into this
