

Demoralized

Jungle Rot

in your mind, thoughts confined, a mental bind you will find, life unkind, back to the grind rat in a trap, about to snap, no chance to shine yours is mine, intertwined, we are aligned

to the bone, for the throne, you're not alone cry and moan, grunt and groan, nose to the stone vacant of rights, out of sight, another clone hold one's own, as a drone, life is postponed

stand up and fight
we must unite
it's a riot we must incite

motherfucker we'll show our might and end our fucking plight
