

Kill on Command

Jungle Rot

established orders are clear on the eve of attack all that run are the enemy our foe be given no slack burn the village and pollute the well viciously stabbed with bayonets beat and clubbed with rifle butts signatures carved into their chest none of them survive expendable lives

kill everyone you find

kill on command
kill on command

innocents flee and hide children, women and old men massacre the whole damn family never to be seen again they arent human to us anyway we need to wipe them out for good help them out of heir misery orders clearly misunderstood

kill on command
annihilation, with no aim
