you are dead rotting skin decaying skulls are caving IN taking one last look blurred and bloody eyes hallucinating things beyond this life's demise crying out

set me free
torturing
the inner me

burning soul
black with hate
searches for
one to taste
blood is flowing free
pouring over me
clawing at your eye
wishing you to die

empty
souls will die
forbidden fate
souls will die

Left for dead bloody with a severed head emotionless life gasping for your BREATH

feasting your fears that eat your skin

denying faith
evil comes and grabs
you by the face

crossed reality
sepetrating me
from my evil past
the pain will not last
