

Life Negated

Jungle Rot

a birth, a death... and life goes on fifst light, last breath, then all is gone life negated, you can't escape lying there, unaware, accept your fate you run, you climb, secrets you keep they lurk, they hide, the wounds burn deep life negated and now sedate so beware what's in there, lying in wait no goals

future was so bright no soul
slowly losing sight
control must fight through your strife black hole consumes your life must have, your fix, no compromise no catch, no tricks, continous supply life negated, won't get it straight no more prayer, cannot bare, succumb to hate
