

No Mercy (from the Merciless)

Jungle Rot

innocence lost across the nation sincerity you humans lack your righteousness has been your flailing your way of life we now attack so inhumane, wde take no prisoners kill with no shame, slaughter campaign

absolute force
with iron fist
expect no mercy
we're merciless

you might as well
just not exist
expect no mercy
we're merciless

achieve our balance by coercion oppression of the meek and frail it's time to rise up to the masses decrepit foes they lie impaled extermination

cleanse with fire

absolute force
with iron fist
expect no mercy
we're merciless

you might as well
just not exist
expect no mercy
we're merciless
