

Banana Ripple

Junior Boys

If you stay real low some things will never go
They'll leave a mark on your hands
It gets so hard to keep myself from moving on Let's stand taller than sands

If you don't really want it
If you don't really care
If you don't really want it
Then why here are you here?

Hey you, it's a cry out in the over there
That's the way you'll get hurt
You come in twitch cause you're living with your secret fraud
There's a spot on your shirt

If you don't really want it
If you don't really care
If you don't really want it
Don't come, you never ask at all

If you could go back, bet you wouldn't wanna see
Comfort is in your past, it's better not to know
Trust me, as if it really matters, why you lost it
Sits of it all,
And if you picking who you gonna have to loose along

Who say you get through any days if it's nothing to see
Still don't want you to sing for me since we were young Often vague as it seems

If you don't really want it
If you don't really care
If you don't really want it
.. we gotta loose it all

If you could go back, bet you wouldn't wanna see
Comfort is in your past, it's better not to know
Trust me, as if it really matters, why you lost it
Sits of it all,

If you don't want it, if you don't want it
If you don't want it, if you don't want it

If you could go back I bet you wouldn't wanna see Comfort is in your past, well it's better not to know
Trust me, as if it really matters now, why you lost it
Sits of it all,
And if you picking who you gonna have to loose along
why you lost it
Sits of it all,
Yeah you lost it, sits of it all

And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me
And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me
And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me let you go
And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me
And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me

And you'll not see me, and you'll not see me let you go
No you'll never see me go
No you'll never, no you'll never, no you'll never
No you'll never see me go
No you'll never, no you'll never, no you'll never
No you'll never see me go
No you'll never, no you'll never, no you'll never
No you'll never see me go
No you'll never, no you'll never, no you'll never
No you'll never see me go
No you'll never, no you'll never, no you'll never
No you'll never see me go.
