

In Every Direction

Junip

still protecting the magic feather holding tight to a supporting crutch writing scripts on worn out leather still waiting on a divine touch try to ride on waves of activity

in every direction
you're the center and you're always free

feeling safe enough to abandon the void ban the zero, ban the noise quiet sounds picked up and dissected all faint shadows reflected

in every direction
you're the center and you're always free
