

Countdown

Jupiter One

And so it begins...
countdown, can you think of a reason why
you so love it downtown?
I met you in the middle of the scandalous town.
It's a miracle you're walking around.
Countdown in a dark town, and so it begins...

It started with a minute of your favorite sound.
A sexy little secret of a radio song
I wish it wasn't floating around.
Countdown to a tight sound, and so it begins...

Can you think of a reason why it's your favorite town
it caught you with your finger on a video girl
America is watching you now
Countdown to a night gown

Hey now, wake up!
It's a beautiful day
Hey now, look up!
You're always turning away.
Are you falling asleep.
Hey now, wake up!
Are you looking away?
Hey now, look up!
Are you watching?
It's a brand new day and you shouldn't be fading away.

And so it begins..
Countdown, it's the time of the season
when you're a man around town.
Imagination taking you where no one else can.
Floating on sins that surround.
Countdown in a dark town, and so it begins..

Hey now, wake up!
It's a beautiful day
