

Darkness

Jupiter

Prison where the light does not reach
Can't hear your cries
There's no answer in broken dreams
Nothing will change

Discord
People wearing emotionless masks
Nightmare
In a world dominated by despair

God has given us destiny
We cannot change
But inside of us we have strength
To overcome

Unleash
To the darkness your luminous light
Rise up
Break the shackles and put up your fists

Darkness

Live and stand up to solitude
No one's gonna come and save you
Fighting for purpose here
Fighting for those you care
Gotta have reason to be in this world

Darkness

Live and stand up to solitude
No one's gonna come and save you
Fighting for purpose here
Fighting for those you care
Gotta have reason to be in this world
