

Breathe Again

Justin Garner

I'm callin my God up, beggin him to come...to my rescue, yeah
The doctor said, she only has three days to live
God send me an angel
Cause I can't control my hands, oh
And if she leaves this world, I know I can't survive, ohhh

I don't know where to turn
So many memories I have to burn
Cause it's killing me to let her go
Please tell me will she breathe again?
Will she breathe again?
Breathe again?
Breathe again?

2:35 in the morning, she left this earth, uhh
I'm out my (?), family cryin, yeah I cried
God send me an angel, cause I know she's in his hands now
Oh my Lord, she was the best friend I ever had, ohhh

I don't know where to turn
So many memories I have to burn
Cause it's killing me to let her go
Please tell me will she breathe again?
Breathe again?
Breathe again?
Breathe again? Ohh

Tell me Lord what should I do? Uhh
Oh my heart is broken, divided in two, ohh yeahh
Cause I can't (?) that won't last a relationship
Can't let it go
I can't forget her face
No I won't let it in my way

I don't know where to turn
So many memories I have to burn
Cause it's killing me to let her go
Breathe again?
Breathe again?
Breathe again? (Uhhhhhhh)
Breathe again?

You see, life
You gotta learn how to take it for granted
Try to live your life right
Cherish the one you love
Cause everything's not guaranteed
