

When You Wake Up

Justin Hayward

Now as we speed a little faster through the stars
To this new world of ours
With the seed that the garden requires

And as we drift a little further from the shore
Like the sea evermore
I'm the ivy that clings round your door

When you wake up
You will find
That you're not where you left yourself

Ahhhh
Ahhhh

Now as we drift a little further down the stream
Was it all what it seemed
Was it true
Was it real
Or just a dream

When you wake up
You will find
That you're not where you left yourself

Ahhhh
Ahhhh

Now as we speed a little faster through the stars
Ahhhh
Ahhhh
Ahhhh
