

How Low

Justin Nozuka

Me against the Water
I've got so much now to lose
Why I didn't want to bother
To fall so Deep into You

How Low do I go
How Low do I go

I swear The Call is getting louder
It's so much harder now to move
Once every city was the next step
The World was open to a brand new point of view

How Low do I go
How Low do I go

I didn't want to hurt no one
I didn't want to hurt no one

How Low do I go
How Low do I go

As the last of Me goes under
Sinking in the Water World destitute
In the back I hear the Thunder
In my memory I'm falling into You
