

On The Streets Tonight

Justin Sane

on the streets tonight, o yeah on the streets tonight on the streets tonight, that's where i'll be found 'cause i don't wanna go home i want to hang out with my friends, i want to hang with you where the city is at peace at 5 AM as over the rooftops rises the sun yeah we've been here all night long, lost in endless talk & our love songs

there are nights when these sidewalks feel like home and the bright street light is a crystal chandelier sipping a cup of coffee until the bakery opens...its doors then a fresh baked loaf of bread, and it's off to bed...yeah where i dream that i am on the streets at night and i've never felt more perfect or in tune with the city, with my friends, with the cops on the corner...y eah

then a stray red dog sits down right next to me and explains the finer points of fresco painting he's been studying six years , he says, "that's 42 years experi ence for humans!"

wake up in the afternoon pick up the phone, i'm dialing you i'll catch you at six for some chinese and some 80's karaoke and then we'll set up on sidewalks where we'll sing our songs all night long....
