

Special

K-Ci & JoJo

Anybody ever told you
That you're so special?

You're so special
Girl, has anybody told you that lately?
You're so special
Lady, that's what you are to me, special

When I wake up, I feel brand new
So renewed
When I wake up, I feel like singing
La da da de da

When I get up, I feel like dancing
Clap my hands, reminisce on your romancing
I'm on my way, I'm coming through
I can't wait to see you

You're so special
Girl, has anybody told you that lately?
You're so special
Lady, that's what you are to me, special

Have I told you lately, baby
That you're the biggest part of me?
The second most reason
That I ever breathe

I love the way you handle things
Love the way you take good care of me
Girl, it's so, so sweet to me, yeah
I'm so glad that God sent me you
I'm so glad I can depend on you

You're so special
Girl, has anybody told you that lately?
You're so special
Lady, that's what you are to me, special

I treasure things about you
The things that you do
You give me joy
Girl, I'm in love with you

Special
Girl, has anybody told you that lately?
You're so special
Lady, that's what you are to me, special

Special
Girl, has anybody told you that lately?
You're so special
Lady, that's what you are to me, special
