What I Am Gonna Do

What am I gonna What am I gonna What am I gonna What am I gonna do

What am I gonna What am I gonna do What am I gonna do

We fell in love a year ago Everything was fine And then you started hangin' out late All the time, all the time

I had to eat all alone I had to sleep all alone I had no one to call my own 'Till I fell in love with someone new

If you love me, and I love you, baby why (You've been duckin' me) Late at night when it gets cold I have no one to hold (I have no one to hold I have no one to hold me)

If I love you, and you love me, baby why (Why do I have somebody new?) Now I got two, what am I, what am I gonna do?

Tell me What am I gonna do, baby JoJo, help me sing it

I ran into you the other day Everything was fine (Everything was fine) Until I saw you hangin' out With another guy, with another guy

I knew you had someone else That's why I found someone else You tryin' to play me, but I guess I guess you seen that I wasn't goin' for that

- If you love me, and I love you, baby why Late at night when it gets cold I have no one to hold

If I love you, and you love me, baby why Now I got two What am I, what am I gonna do?
