Extraordinary Thing

My ordinary days are spent inside the maze of never changing ways such ordinary days my ordinary spin showed itself again it never seemes to end

then you came waltzing in waltzing in
i'm falling...
i'm falling in
i never knew
the likes of you

extraordinary thing i do believe you are indeed, an extraordinary thing my ordinary game predictable and plain has never been the same since you came waltzing waltzing in i'm falling...
