k.d. lang

With all good intent I come running
To give you a world full of me
And if then you find, there is one thing
The one thing you want, I can be

You ask me to find you an answer
Of what you and I could be
And if there in fact is a chance here
This could be love indeed

Believe in this
Believe in this
Believe in this, oh
Believe in this

With all good intent I'll keep running
To give you a world full of me
And if then you find, there is one thing
The one thing you want, this I'll be

Believe in this
Believe in this
Believe in this
