Wash Me Clean

You swim, swim through my veins Drown me in your reign My desire carries no shame My will, will harbour no pain

Wash, wash me clean Mend my wounded seams Cleanse my tarnished dreams

Swim, swim through my veins Drown me in your reign

Wash, wash me clean Mend my wounded seams Cleanse my tarnished dreams

Drink, drink from my spell Quench, love's drying well
