

Anywhere But Here

K.Flavy

See I've been caught in between two extremes
From the high to low, gotta hide from the light of day
Feeling like I might just float away
Can't say what's real anymore
Or what the hell I'm living for
But it sounds so sweet when you tell me that you love me
Space in which I'm in erased can't travel
Watch the stitches of my life unravel
And I'm battling what does it matter
Silence in a world full of chatter
Yeah I'm having a real hard go of it
Who gives a shit well nobody
Might turn to dust, but I like what you do to me too much

I don't see nothing wrong with feeling like I don't belong
Anywhere but here
I can't find nothing right with feeling like I won't survive
So make this disappear

And let me just fly, high, high away
I wanna just fly high, high away

See I've been stretched to the max
Pushed every limit can't be brought back
Innocence well I lost that, feeling good well I'm off that
So I revel in the pain
Chemicals inside my veins
And it sounds so sweet when you tell me that you love me
I'm a ghost, a flash, a pure apparition
And it goes so fast, sure that I'm missing
Any hope of the path that I wanna be following
Take a drink, keep swallowing
Take a pill, tip the bottle back
Go in for the kill and I'm automatically feeling fine
Let me step out of my mind

I don't see nothing wrong with feeling like I don't belong
Anywhere but here
So make this disappear

And let me just fly, high, high away
I wanna just fly high, high away

From what I can detect the mess that I've been left in Heart soon arrested beating slowly
And I'm facing a wall full of questions
Demons in my chest I confess they own me
And if only I could just break this trend
I believe that I might be myself again
It's been a long time since I felt free
It's been a long time since I felt new
I spent a long time down on my knees
Waiting to find someone like you

I don't see nothing wrong with feeling like I don't belong
Anywhere but here

So make this disappear

And let me just fly, high, high away
I wanna just fly high, high away
