

This Baby Don't Cry

K.Flav

One, two, three

I used to worry about the way that I walked
Like was I talking too loud? And could I hang with the jocks?
It's never easy to be different inside
But when you don't give a fuck, it's just like riding a bike

I try to tell 'em 'See ya later! '
But they don't wanna let me go
I send my love to all the haters
Yeah I just wanna let 'em know
This baby don't cry
This baby don't cry

I used to think about the way that I dressed
Like was I pretty enough? And am I good at sex?
I used to want to say an early goodbye
But I'm a disco queen, I just keep staying alive

I try to tell 'em 'See ya later! ' (See ya later)
But they don't wanna let me go (Let me go)
I blow a kiss to all the haters (All the haters)
Yeah I just wanna let 'em know
This baby don't cry
This baby don't cry

This baby don't cry
Oh, all right
My eyes stay dry
I'm feelin' all right
I'm doin' just fine
This baby don't

I like the feeling when I'm naked in bed
Dreamin' of crazy things inside my crazy head
Nobody tells you when you're just a kid
That the rules all change, you gotta lose to win
So I sit back and just enjoy the ride
Watch my worries, wave goodbye
But get embarrassed if my moves are wrong
Baby I sing off key, but you still love this song (You love this song
)

This baby don't cry
This baby don't cry
This baby don't cry
This baby don't cry
