

Destiny

K Koke

What am I destined to be
What is my destiny
Is it music or the roads that get the best of me
Will I blow or will the po be arresting me
Will I be doing shows or will I rest in peace
I'ma let the dice roll and see what's meant for me
And if my time comes then it's meant to be
Why they resenting me
Am I next to be is that the reason that they are vex with me

See I been thinking bout my life an where my life's heading
Am I living right
That might could be the question
Four fizzy siting by my side like a western
Poor living got me shotting to the sales them
Lord forgive me I'm just tryna feed my children
The roads are sticky I don't know if it will end
I don't know cause I'm still here
Deaths around the corner I don't feel scared
I don't feel fear
Shit is real here living where I come from
But I'm a real brer living in these dutty slums
They wanna kill me that's why I gotta carry guns
The streets feel me that's why I gotta carry on Music is my bread
Music is my water
I don't wanna a shot no more and get caught up
I just wanna go on tour and get more love
And get away cause life's hard where I was brought up

What am I destined to be
What is my destiny
Is it music or the roads that get the best of me
Will I blow or will the po be arresting me
Will I be doing shows or will I rest in peace
I'ma let the dice roll and see what's meant for me
And if my time comes then it's meant to be
Why they resenting me
Am I next to be is that the reason that they are vex with me

On a real I ain't even vex to see
I must be doing good why they're obsessed with me
I'm just tryna leave the hood why they stressing me
45 up in the shoobs I keep it next to me
Cah I know they want my life and I respect the beef
Respect is suttten thy can't take from me
Press my buttons and I press my heat
Can't tell me nothing I was raised in these streets

What am I destined to be
What is my destiny
Is it music or the roads that get the best of me
Will I blow or will the po be arresting me
Will I be doing shows or will I rest in peace
I'ma let the dice roll and see what's meant for me
And if my time comes then it's meant to be
Why they resenting me

Am I next to be is that the reason that they are vex with me
