

Judge Me

K. Michelle

Heaven, Heaven don't say bye to my soul
I just wanna make it, make it through the door before they close
Oh I hate that I couldn't get right even if I tried
It's a sin how we love but only God can judge

Judge me, judge me all you want
I'm only human and I'm perfectly flawed
I know it's easy to point your finger at me
Cause I say the things that only y'all think
So judge me if you need, I bet Eve was just like me

Oh oh oh, who wouldn't bite the apple in front of your face
I know that I love, I love the way temptation taste
Oh I hate that I couldn't get right even if I tried
It's a sin how we love but only God can judge

Judge me, judge me all you want
I'm only human and I'm perfectly flawed
I know it's easy to point your finger at me
Cause I say the things that only y'all think
So judge me if you need, I bet Eve was just like me

Judge me, judge me all you want
I'm only human and I'm perfectly flawed
I know it's easy to point your finger at me
Cause I say the things that only y'all think
So judge me if you need, I bet Eve was just like me

So judge me if you need, I bet it works just like me
