

Miss You, Goodbye

K. Michelle

I miss you in the day
I miss you in the night
I miss the way we used to dump
But I don't miss your lies

I miss the way we laughed
You used to make me smile
Maybe you'll see
When we can't be
And then you'll come around

I need your love
I need enough
You left me out and dry
In my angry pride
It don't hurt no lie
Miss you, but goodbye

I I wish that you could change
But I don't think you can
I wish that you could feel this pain
So you could understand

I hate you're not the one
I hate you more
Cause my path ain't meant for 2
But I sleep here alone

I need your love
I need enough
You left me out and dry
In my angry pride
It don't hurt no lie
Miss you, but goodbye

And I hold on to the night
And I pick up when I'm down
But I wanna you
I wanna you

If there's any hope
My head's there
Let it go
My heart says: why we fall in love?
Why we fall in love?
But I'm giving up

I need your love
I need enough
You left me out and dry
In my angry pride
It don't hurt no lie
Miss you, but goodbye
