Gina

Love always seemed an illusion to me I could never make things fit But now that thought turned around Cause everything feels so right

You see I met you on this big day I saw your face and got filled with emotion So now the sky seems a different blue Cause I know my heart belongs to you

Ohh Gina Could you look at me once more Before you walk out of that door Ohh Gina Just wanna look you in the eye Cause I can't stand sayin goodbye

I know it would be hard for us to be Couldn't we just give it a shot But I know your heart must agree Just wanna love you till the end of time

Ohh Gina Could you look at me once more Before you walk out of that door Ohh Gina Just wanna look you in the eye Cause I can't stand sayin goodbye

Don't know how it's gonna be Don't know what I've gotta do I'm just tryin to let you see That I'm giving this heart to you

Ohh Gina Could you look at me once more Before you walk out of that door Ohh Gina Come close in my arms tonight I know that love has never died Ooh Gina Just wanna look you in the eye I just can't stand sayin goodbye Ohh Gina Ohh Gina Just wanna look you in the eye And never ever say goodbye K-Otic
