

These Are The Thoughts

K's Choice

I'm looking through a crack of the window while you drive
Trying to decide
If the world looks different through the glass of your wagon
In the night, bouncing off the lights

These Are The Thoughts I have when I'm happy
This is where I go
I'm with you, so I don't have to worry
I'm already home

I'm listening to the sound of the gravel while you walk
Trying not to talk
Feeling no less freedom than the breeze thats rustles through y ou hair
Bouncing off the air

These Are The Thoughts I have when I'm happy
This is where I go
I'm with you, so I don't have to worry
I'm already home

I can share my wildest dream and
Even in my darkest hours
I feel safe and so well cared for

Like tis world, like this world is ours

These Are The Thoughts I have when I'm happy
This is where I go
I'm with you, so I don't have to worry
I'm already home
