Try To Get Some Sleep

There's a reason so well hidden Why I was torn apart from you Like a song I've never written Like a joke without a clue No I don't want to close my eyes and think of you

How I'd like to get you back, but He won't let me How I'd like to sing the songs we knew by heart Farewell sounds really cheap for pain you left me And it's growing mushrooms in my heart No I don't want to close my eyes and think of you

I wanna try to get some sleep But it is hard, can't take the lead I'm gonna try to get some sleep

I'm gonna try to get some sleep Join the great subconscious club I'm gonna try to get some sleep But I'm afraid to wake up

Do you realise I don't know what to do Did you become just an idea, are you still real Do you still have that snapshot that I gave you Oh don't answer me, it wouldn't change the way I feel Do you feel as if you're having a ball Oh I guess, I hope you don't feel anything at all

I'm gonna try to get some sleep Join the great subconscious club I'm gonna try to get some sleep But I'm afraid to wake up

I'm gonna try to get some sleep Join the great subconscious club I'm gonna try to get some sleep But I'm afraid to wake up
