

When I Lay Beside You

K's Choice

I am everything I want to be
With your loving face in front of me
With your eyes that hum the perfect song
To go on long after I am gone

When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you

Like the absence of a roaring sound
And the walls I build came tumbling down
And it almost made me worship God
'Cause you're everything these words are not

When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
I am perfect

In your eyes I see eternity
And a girl that looks a lot like me
Eternity, a little trip
You're the beat my heart will skip

When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
I am perfect

Nanananananana

When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
When I lay beside you
I am perfect
