

White Kite Fauna

K's Choice

In a dark well
Late at night
Children crying, they've lost their kite

Giant lizards
Eating deer
Growing appetite as they notice that
Their prey's stills breathing

Lizards' eyes reflection
Shows a glimpse of imperfection
Through the spastic sighs of innocence
Of deer's blood and it's cruel attraction

White kite fauna, do you feel
White kite fauna, is it real
Is it real

In a dark well
I found a kite
Bloodstained, so beautiful
Recognizable

I close my eyes and
I perceive
Marble emptiness
Looking for my soul to bless

Lizards' eyes reflection
Shows a glimpse of imperfection
Through the spastic sighs of innocence
Of deer's blood and it's cruel attraction

White kite fauna, do you feel
White kite fauna, is it real
White kite fauna, do you feel
White kite fauna, will it heal
Will it heal

In a dark well
Late at night
I am crying
I've lost my kite
Left with nothing
