

Love Will Rule the World

Joshua Kadison

Sherll tell you she was born in summer.
Summer is the season she loves best.
Sherll tell you anything you ask her.
Tell the truth and them make up the rest.
And if you're lucky she may stay awhile.
And if you're careful you may see her sacred smile.
rtil something inside you knows

love will rule the world some day
love will rule the world some day
love will rule the world some day
love will rule the world some day
love is gonna rule
and all the mountains that they say can't be moved shall be moved
And all the visions that they say can't be proved shall be proved!
Buried dreams will rise.
Broken hearts will all be soothed.
Some day love, some day love
love will rule the world.
Sherll lay beside you by the ocean.
And sherll make angels in the sand.
And if she say sees the mermaid,
try to believe her if you can.
And if she tells you she can hear their song,
aou can ask her if sherll
help you sing along
rtil something inside you knows

love will rule the world some day
