

Destiny's Path

Kai Tracid

Our life is a never ending circle of power and success.
The thought of being caught in it, makes your existence lonely and depressive.
You would freak out if you didn't have the opportunity to escape the real world once in a while.
To let yourself go with the flow of the music and express yourself to the rhythm on the dancefloor.

Drowning in a temporary ecstasy and overcoming the feeling of loneliness.
Letting the music penetrate your subconsciousness 'til it's taking full control over you.
This is when you realize that you were born and that you gonna die without having any influence in it.
But you can break through the boundaries coz it's your life and your future, it's Destiny's path!
