

I'm Here

Kai

Without any words, i can tell that you're hurt,
I can see it in your eyes,
Take hold of my hand, yes i'll understand
If you break down and cry...

But there's no need for tears
Just leave all your fears behind
And know that im here
I will alwaise be near your heart
Yes im here...

I'll hold you close, I'll keep you warm
When life's not on your side,
I'll hold you tight, here in my arms
Where nothing could break your heart

I never told you, just how much i loved you
If i did, i wouldn't know where to start
Id make things worse
Your heart should come first
Its only time taht'll tell my heart...

But when that time comes,
I will give you my love and my life
And i promise your tears
Will all disappear from your eyes
Yes, im here...

I'll hold you close, I'll keep you warm
When life's not on your side,
I'll hold you tight, here in my arms
Where nothing could break your heart
