

Take Another View

Kajagoogoo

People stay the same
But circumstances change
Like you like me and I like you again
If they keep I'm torn beside
We'd better run and hide
The shelter this was prove as all again
Took another view

We could see it in a different light (in a different light)
All we'll feel it'll happen overnight (happen overnight)

I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again

A weaker man am I?
I didn't want a dime
But I would rather go and stole
Dower is the air
Don't suppose they really care
We have to run
Escape
Scape

We could see it in a different light (in a different light)
All we'll feel it'll happen overnight (happen overnight)

I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again

I look around on the earth
Like a stone to the ground
Overnight

In& And I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again
In& And I will, falling in and out again

In& and out& again
We're in and& in& and out& again
We're in and& in& and out& again
Again, we're& in and out
In& and out& again
In& and out& again again
Again, we're falling in and out again
