

Falling day

Kaki King

Stories fell like drops of blood
Screaming noise, collapse a lung

Between his lips, full of steamships

Cowards, heroes fight
Blazing deadly night
So I'm told
So I'm told
So I'm told
So I'm told
So I'm told
So I'm told

Everything comes from somewhere else
Everyone stays alone
Everything comes from somewhere else
Everyone stays alone
Everything comes from somewhere else
Everyone stays alone
Everything comes from somewhere else
Everyone stays alone
