Unconditional

Kalan Porter

You're the words I feel inside of my soul And the light I see beyond my control

So don't be afraid to give and to take Don't be afraid your heart's gonna break

Love is all, love is one, love is unconditional Love is all you need in your heart so let it be Love is tough, love is torn, love is unpredictable Love won't judge... love is unconditional

You're the touch I feel in my heart I know You're the breath that i take that I can't let go

So don't be afraid to give and to take Don't be afraid your heart's gonna break

Love is all, love is one, love is unconditional Love is all you need in your heart so let it be Love is tough, love is torn, love is unpredictable Love won't judge... love is unconditional

If I had the sun, could I count on you If I had the moon would you be there too If this was the last day of our lives I see that day with you

Love is all, love is one, love is unconditional Love is all you need in your heart so let it be Love is tough, love is torn, love is unpredictable Love won't judge... love is unconditional
