

The Glory Starts

Kaledon

After the fall, the second fall Carnagus fails and we catch him
We must complete the plan of war
And put the end to the reign of dark

Big swords and shields, arches and arrows and heavy armors, to kill forever Know we must fight for forces of light
The dragon with us for mighty revenge

Fight together to kill the evil and to bless this black land
the glory will starts, the glory will come in the name of our kingdom come

The evil's master now is in chains Into his castle now he must die
His skeleton throne is troop round
The fire of revenge is in the air

Soldiers of kaledon, Daeniel's men They watch the black throne, supervising Carnagus eyes is looking around But nobody there's for helping him

Fight together to kill the evil and to bless this black
land
the glory will starts, the glory will come
in the name of our kingdom come

Ehi....Carnagus, your game it's failed Your plane of war it was dethroned Daeniel and me we are the light
And with the light, the night will leave

Kaledon wins for his mighty sons Valley of the death now will be blessed The light becomes, the light will be rise
And will return to shine in the sky

Fight together to kill the evil and to bless this black
land
the glory will starts, the glory will come
in the name of our kingdom come
