

The New Kingdom

Kaledon

New reign was born
New army will leave
Under the white clouds
New kaledon rise

Blow swift cold wind Fly in the reign
Eagles in the land
Power is in the air

Big castle dominate the ground
White bricks compose the walls
Is the fortress ,the imposing home of the king

Archers are on the towers
Proud flags are on the spout Kaledon's coat of arms is high high in the sky

Keep the faith alive, this is the new big kingdom
Mighty wisdom of our king, creates love in the people's heart

all the free men are glad about the king that is beloved for his simplicity

forever we'll scream as torches in the wind ... honor and loyalty to the crown of the king

Big castle dominate the ground
White bricks compose the walls
home of the king

Mighty wisdom of our king, creates love in the people's heart
