

Black Fjord

Kaleidoscope

The warriors are sailing away to Valhalla
And I must also leave upon the rain
The orchestra of broken hearts is silent in the dark
The feelings in me are all close to pain

I must return the magic ring of Eltera
The Saxon warlord is opening his arms
A witch of many shadows is praying for a storm
Oh, but Odin predicts it will be calm

The hero lord is also present at the black fjord
He speaks in silence at the black fjord
The boats are burning at the black fjord

From a thousand years, I can see the coming light
The fjords echo with the sounds of death
The Nordic peoples have come so far to say goodbye
But I'm afraid my farewell is without breath

The hero lord is also present at the black fjord
He speaks in silence at the black fjord
The boats are burning at the black fjord

And so in a boat of flames, I sail away to meet the gods
And within me, my heart is but a stone
The magic ring of Eltera is now safe again
The Saxon dead are all going home

The hero lord is also present at the black fjord
The boats are burning at the black fjord
He speaks in silence at the black fjord
Let us see him speak to us inside a while
The hero lord is also present at the black fjord
Also present at the black fjord
Thor and Valkyrie can now show the way
The Saxon dead are all going home
