

You Can't Go Home Again

Kaleidoscope

The road is long and paved with gold -- or so they say
But you got lost along the way

The life you lived has vanished -- no-one thought you you cared
The ones you loved no longer there

You can't go home again, You can't go home again
You can't go home again, You can't go home

I am a child inside the dream of who I am
A distant voice inside the man

Inside the man -- inside the child -- inside the man

You can't go home again, You can't go home again
You can't go home again, You can't go home
