Dancing In Disguise

Kalle Baah

You never win the race if you walk in someones footprints Or ever stand the pace if you don't start where it begins The muckraker dancing tonight, you can hardly see it but she's there Smokey room, misty light, always play underhand No she'll never understand Chorus Variety is a spice of life - tell me how you mean...you know Acting on a silverscreen, so tell me Mrs Slowcoach and smart Al ес How come when you wanna walk you walk out of step Chorus The zenith of your career are long gone now You can hardly see it but it's true In danger zone you walk alone Just like a bloodsucker, a backbiting bacherlor Chorus
