

Try Another One

Kalle Baah

Try another one, I've heard it before
Try another one, I want to be sure
You talk yo much, you never hush
You'll never walk on the truth line
You run around, and you go up and down
You've got nothing in your mind
You and your chatty mouth, go around
And spreading out, that you're high in the sky
All I want to do, all I want to say
Is that you are a damned blasted liar
Try another one, I've heard it before
Try another one, I want to be sure
You talk yo much, you never hush
You'll never walk on the truth line
You run around, and you go up and down
You've got nothing in your mind
So try another one, me no understand
Why you're cheating your own friends
Do you believe it or not, do you recieve it or not
Or have you lost your last bit of sense
Try another one, I've heard it before
Try another one, I want to be sure
