We Are Not Separate

Launch the silver spear The world will cry a tear In the heavens will appear another angel Hear the elders cry Waiting for their time As they look towards the heavens Why won't they answer?

We are playing with nature Splitting the atom Confusing religions Killing the masses

We are not separate from what we destroy Time has come for us to make the only choice We are not separate from what we destroy Time has come for us to make the only choice

We rape for our power Not caring for life We tarnish our waters 'Til they are as black as night We visualize the future With the eyes of the blind We hear nature calling But we still deny

We are not separate from what we destroy Time has come for us to make the only choice Kamelot
