

Crazy Warnings

Kane

So Im kind a like,
Waiting,
Staying here just,
Killing time
And Im ready for this because I,
I want you to let you know,
That Im,
Still around.
Hoping that you would hear this,
And let you know,
That this is written only,
Only for you.
I was wondering if you still know that eh,
That were in it,
That were in it for life.
I feel different now ok.
Please, well,
I am still around.
You know that right.
Sometimes I got the feeling that you don't.
I got the feeling that you don't Sometimes,
I got the feeling that you cant.
I know I let you down,
But then I knew,
I always would.
Some things feel better now,
But then I knew,
They always would.
So don't you stay,
Oh don't just wait,
Oh don't you know,
I had to let you go.
Still I miss your crazy warnings,
Like I knew I always would.
I just want to let you know,
I've got a feeling that you're always here,
Always here.
I just want to let you know
