

Until Nothing Else Matters

Kane

Oh, could be that I
Could I make you feel right?
'Coz now I see you, I want you again

And could it be that I
Could I make this work right?
'Coz now I hear you, I want you again
Now I hear you, I want you again
Until nothing else matters

Oh, could it be that I
Could I make you feel right?
Coz I've been outside and waiting for you
Tell me when you sleep, tell me do you see me?

'Coz I've been out here and waiting for you
I've been out here and waiting for you
Until nothing else matters

Until you wake up and find someone else
Until nothing else matters, no
Until it's bringing you down
Until you wake up and find it all gone, yeah

Oh, could be that I
Oh, could I make you feel right?
'Coz I've been out here and waiting for you

Oh, could it be that I
Oh, can I take you higher?
I can take you up, yeah, baby, I could
I've been out here and waiting for you
Until nothing else matters, come on

Until you wake up and find someone else
Until nothing else matters no
Until it's bringing you down
Until you wake up and find it all gone

Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah yeah
Oh yeah, yeah

Oh, could it be that I
Can I make you feel right?
If I touch you all over again

Oh, could it be that I
Could I make this work right
If I want you all over again
If I want you all over again
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

'Til, until you wake up and find someone else
Until nothing else matters, no, no, no
Until it's bringing you down

Until you wake up, damn, you never wake up

Until you wake up and find someone else
Until nothing else matter, no, no, no

Until it's bringing you down
It's got your head to the ground
Until you wake up and you find it all gone
