Cheyenne Anthem

From the mountains to the sun Life has only just begun We wed this land and pledged Our souls to meet it's end

Life has only just begun Here my people roam the earth In the kingdom of our birth Where the dust of all our horses hides the sun We are mighty on the earth, on the earth

You have come to move me Take me from my ancient home Land of my fathers I can't leave you now We will share it with you No man owns this earth we're on

Now the wheels are rolling Hear the howling winds of war It's my destiny to fight and die But is there no solution Can we find no other way, Lord, let me stay

Under the endless sky And the earth below Here I was born to live And I will never go, oh no

But we cannot endure Like the earth and the mountains Life is not ours to keep For a new sun is rising

Soon these days shall pass away For our freedom we must pay All our words and deeds are carried on the wind In the ground our bodies lay, here we'll stay Kansas
