Freaks of Nature

Kansas

Freak of nature fact or fright
Puts up with pain puts up with spite

Scarred up shoes have lost their sheen It looks like better days they've seen

Chameleon man naive tycoon Will eat the poor with silver spoon

He'll jest and jeer through looking glass But nest right near the upper class

Who'll be the first one pointing at the simple man
Now I know I'm only lucky every freak of nature should know
How to run the whole freakin' show

Freak of nature'd rather be no less a man than you or me He'd rather look the other way choose to fight another day

I take things for granted turn the tables 'round What if I was down

To much goin' on runnin' out of time And I don't understand it
