

Glorify You

Kara

In this moment
Let the world just melt away
Let my Worship find Your heart
And bring You nothin' but praise
All I have to give I offer up to You
Yeah, yeah

You pour Your life into me
And You give each breath that I breathe
And all that I know and believe
Gives me every reason to praise You
The Lamb Who was slain
And my compassionate King
Oh, I will forever be changed
And I will use my life to glorify You
Glorify you
Now I bow down
And I raise my hands to You
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I will stay here till
Your Spirit fills me through and through
Yeah

All I have to give I offer up to you, oh
You pour Your life into me
And You give each breath that I breathe
And all that I know and believe
Gives me every reason to praise You
The Lamb Who was slain
And my compassionate King
Oh, I will forever be changed
And I will use my life to glorify You
Glorify You

You pour Your life into me
And You give each breath that I breathe
And all that I know and believe
Gives me every reason to praise You
The Lamb Who was slain
And my compassionate King
Oh, I will forever be changed
And I will use my life to glorify
You pour Your life into me
And You give each breath that I breathe
And all that I know and believe
Gives me every reason to praise You
The Lamb Who was slain
And my compassionate King
Oh, I will forever be changed
And I will use my life to glorify You
