

Let Me Take You Home

Karel Zich

Hm, hm, hm, hm

Seems like you've been hanging around
For just quite a while
Haven't been here for too long
But have noticed your smile
Wonder just who have brought you in
And whom you belong to
That's not the party for the kids
So let me take you home

You don't look like another party-girl
I can see it in your face
You're not the puppet on the paper-lace
So let me take you home

Hm, hm, hm, hm

I have seen your childish face
Somewhere in the crowd
I am sure I will make that pace
And I know I'll be proud
Have known this place for a long long time
And had been here before
That is the reason why I ask
Let me take you home

You don't look like another party-girl
I can see it in your face
You're not the puppet on the paper-lace
So let me take you home

Hm, hm, hm, hm

I am sure that you realize
There's nothing here for you
And all those "happy" people here
Just try not to feel blue
If I can help you by an advice
Please pack your things and go
And I won't ask you more than twice
Let me take you home

You don't look like another party-girl
I can see it in your face
You're not the puppet on the paper-lace
So let me take you home

Hm, hm, hm, hm
